Capricorn Tourism Chairman appointed to Tourism Queensland Board

Capricorn Tourism Chairman, Grant Cassidy has been appointed to the Tourism Queensland Board announced by the Tourism Minister, Margaret Keech today.

This appointment extends the relationship with Capricorn Tourism to further voice the Capricorn region as a prominent tourism destination.

This vital relationship continues to support the Capricorn Tourism long term strategic goals of increasing the promotion and awareness of the region with the support from Tourism Queensland.

Capricorn Tourism General Manager, Alan Chamberlain welcomes the news as a positive step for the Capricorn region.

"This will bridge the connections between Queensland and the Capricorn region and build a stronger relationship to lead the tourism industry," he commented.

Grant Cassidy accepted the position at Tourism Queensland with enthusiasm of being part of the leading industry within Queensland.

"It is an exciting time ahead for tourism in Queensland and I'll be enthusiastically embracing the opportunity of participating at State level and being part of the implementation of the Queensland Tourism Strategy," he said.

Grant Cassidy is a prominent tourism operator in the Capricorn Region and is the Chairman of the Capricorn Tourism board. He has extensive experience in marketing and the operation of accommodation and hospitality businesses in the Central Queensland region.
