Capricorn Tourism invites Channel Seven 'Sunrise' Weather Winnebago to Rockhampton

The Channel Seven 'Sunrise' Weather Winnebago is set to ride into Rockhampton on Tuesday the 12th of June to film the weather segment 'live' at the Great Western Hotel from 6am till 9am.

The Capricorn Tourism invitation to Rockhampton was extended to the Sunrise Weather Winnebago as a unique and contemporary way of promoting regional tourism on a grander national scale.

Throughout the morning, 'Sunrise' weather presenter, Monique Wright will interview Rockhampton Zoo Keeper with resident wombat, Wiggles, and upcoming tennis star, Cory Jacobs as highlights to their visit to Rockhampton.

Local residents are encourage to attend to make this visit special for the Weather Winnebago team and let Australia know what a special place Rockhampton means to them 'live' on national television.

Capricorn Tourism General Manager, Alan Chamberlain believes that the visit to Rockhampton will provide an excellent opportunity to showcase Rockhampton and the Capricorn Region.

"The Sunrise Weather Winnebago is a great occasion for the local community to be an active part in tourism and showcase what Rockhampton has to offer through a dynamic and nationally showcased program," he said.

Everyone is welcome to attend the one-time-only Sunrise event for their chance to grab their 15 seconds of fame and autograph from the presenter, Monique Wright.
